MICHELLE  NEZAT

Michelle is a popular podcaster, author, and speaker. With over 500 episodes and thousands of listeners each week, she inspires and equips her audience to read the Bible for themselves.

Introducing

Michelle Nezat has written almost two million words for her 500+ episodes of her weekly podcast since 2014. With hours of Bible reading and study devoted to each episode, she's always on the lookout for simple ways to interact with God's Word that keep the reader actively engaged.

Michelle is a Cajun girl living in Louisiana but was born and raised in Idaho. She is a life-long follower of Christ, and that is what has shaped her life the most. Michelle is married to a strong, godly man with an entrepreneurial spirit and seemingly unlimited reserves of support for her. She has two gorgeous, creative girls who keep her busy and inspired.

After a year in Bible college, she completed her education in marketing and management and eventually joined her girls at Westminster Christian Academy as the Director of Institutional Advancement for 10 years. She is now the published author of her debut novel "A Seat at the Table: A Christian Redemption Story" with undertones of the doctrine of Authority of Scripture.

She loves coffee, pie, writing, and the lake. But she is preferably drinking coffee, eating pie, and writing AT the lake.

Her prayer is that God will give her audiences an unreasonable desire for God's Word that will lead to an unsurpassable relationship with God Himself.

Michelle's practicality, focus on the gospel of Christ, and plain speaking were very refreshing.”

Keynote Topics

Michelle desires to prayerfully create custom presentations for her audiences. She only takes a few speaking engagements per year and thus can match the theme/direction of each conference. With the goal of Bible literacy for all, she weaves her trademark Bible Interaction Tool Exercises (BITEs) into each session, leaving the hearers with practical tools they can use in their own Bible study.

Example One

Listen to a portion or all of the sessions from the Cultivate Conference. Custom sessions created for the ladies of Trinity Anglican Church, Lafayette, LA.

Michelle is a gifted Bible teacher and speaker. I had the pleasure of hearing her speak at a women's conference and have never left a conference feeling more encouraged in my spiritual walk! She taught the Bible and gave practical tools that I have learned to apply in my Bible reading. Her insight into how to read and study scripture was new and refreshing. Michelle continues to encourage me weekly as I've listened to her podcast episodes and sought to grow in my own knowledge of God's Word."
